NACD Committee Chairmen Named for 2008

The National Association of Chemical Distributors (NACD) has announced its committee chairmen for 2008. Most committee chairmen serve a two-year term and are responsible for naming NACD members to their committee.

“NACD depends heavily on its active members who volunteer to serve as committee chairman,” said NACD Chairman Peter Hess. “It is their enthusiasm and love of the industry that keeps our Association moving forward in its ability to provide meaningful benefits to member companies and keep chemical distributors at the forefront of the industry’s EHS&S efforts.”

The following NACD members have volunteered to chair committees. Chairmen who have just begun their two-year term are David B. Binder, Stephen J. Cornwall, and Michael Shepherd.
